

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

SB 506

February 23, 2009

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes cities to regulate and coordinate 911 services.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Expenditures – Exceeds $1,000,000/Permissive

Assumptions:

- Because this legislation is permissive, it is not possible to estimate accurately how many local governments will enact this legislation beyond an estimated permissive increase exceeding $1,000,000.
- According to the Department of Commerce and Insurance, the Tennessee Emergency Communications Board would not have authority over cities that choose to regulate their own 911 services.
- Brentwood, Bristol, Kingsport, Oak Ridge, Clinton, and LaFollette currently operate their own public safety answering point (PSAP) services at an average annual cost of $343,050 each.
